Welcome

If you are visiting our church today, we welcome you to our worship service and Christian community. Please find the registration book in the foyer of the church and help us serve you better by leaving your name and contact information. We promise to keep this information confidential and only use it for personal contact with you and your family. Join us downstairs for coffee after this morning's service.

All Sunday School classes are suspended for the summer months. You are invited to stay after the service for a bit and enjoy coffee and conversation down in the Fellowship Hall. This evening we gather together again at 6 PM for our Evening Prayer Service.

If you are unfamiliar with our form of worship, please feel free to speak with one of the Pastors or Elders. We have resources that will help you understand the biblical rationale for why we worship the way we do. Visit our website for articles, essays, and other helpful information on our worship and life at Providence: www.providencestlouis.com.

The Lord's Supper is observed every Sunday as the climax of covenant renewal worship. We invite to the Lord's Table all those who are baptized disciples of Jesus Christ, under the authority of Christ and his body, the Church. By eating the bread and wine with us as a visitor, you are acknowledging to the elders of this local church that you are in covenant with God as an active member of a congregation in which the Gospel is faithfully confessed, taught, and believed. If you have any doubt about your participation, please speak to one of the elders or the pastor before or after the service. Note: The middle circle of cups in each tray contains grape juice, the larger outer ring contains wine (the grape juice has a darker color than the wine).

Holy Trinity Diagram (Front Cover)

No symbol can adequately comprehend the richness of the reality and abundant life of our Triune God. The shield on the front cover depicts something of the Unity in Trinity and Trinity in Unity that is the living and true God in whom we trust. At the center of the circle is Deus (Latin for "God"). Reading out from the center along the three spokes, the unity of the Godhead is represented: Deus est Pater = God is the Father and the Father is God; Deus est Filius = God is the Son and the Son is God; Deus est Spiritus Sanctus = God is the Holy Spirit and the Holy Spirit is God. Reading around the circumference of the circle, the distinctions between the Persons are noted: Pater non est Filius = The Father is not the Son; Filius non est Spiritus Sanctus = The Son is not the Holy Spirit; Spiritus Sanctus non est Pater = The Holy Spirit is not the Father.

And also with you!

Who is like Yahweh our God?

Psalm 113:5-8

with the princes of his people.

†Leader: Let us pray to the Lord:

Purification

†Leader: If we say we have no sin,

We deceive ourselves and the truth is not in us.

If we confess our sins,

He is faithful and righteous to forgive us our sins.

Let us therefore humbly confess our sins to God our Father.

Come, let us worship and bow down, Psalm 95:6

And kneel before the Lord our Maker. [Congregation kneels]

O God, our heavenly Father, I confess to you that I have grievously sinned against you in thought, word, and deed; not only in outward transgressions, but also in secret thoughts and desires that I am unable fully to understand, but which are all known to you. I am in need of deliverance from your enemies and my infirmities. For this reason I flee for refuge to your infinite mercy, seeking and imploring your forgiveness and deliverance, through my Lord, Jesus Christ. Amen.

According to Thy word!

How can the dead adore Thee

Or bring their thanks before Thee,

Or praise Thy holy Name?

I'm weary with my moaning,

Worn out with constant groaning

And overcome with shame.

All night, instead of sleeping,

I drench my couch with weeping.

Maker of heaven and earth,
and of all things visible and invisible.

And in one Lord Jesus Christ, the only-begotten Son of God, begotten of his Father before all worlds: God of God,
Light of Light, very God of very God, begotten, not made;
being of one substance with the Father,
by whom all things were made:

Who for us men and for our salvation came down from heaven,
and was incarnate by the Holy Spirit of the virgin Mary,
and was made man; and was crucified also for us
under Pontius Pilate. He suffered and was buried;
and the third day he rose again according to the Scriptures,
and ascended into heaven,
and sits on the right hand of the Father.

And he shall come again with glory to judge both the living and the dead whose kingdom shall have no end.

And I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, and Giver of Life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son together is worshipped and glorified; who spoke by the prophets.

And I believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
I acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
And I look for the resurrection of the dead
and the life of the world to come. Amen!

The Lord's Service Explained

Why Do We Use Hymnals?

There are a number of good answers to that question. Here are a few to think about. First, hymnals collect the musical and poetic gifts that the Spirit has given to the church through the ages. A hymnal in your hands is a great treasure of Spiritual insight and a model for prayer and praise. We sing hymns from the early, medieval, and modern church that the collective church has judged to be worthy of preservation for use in the liturgy of the Christian church, as well as private devotions.

Second, having just mentioned the “collective” wisdom of the church, we should not fail to appreciate a well-crafted hymnal function as a theological textbook. They are reliable sources of knowledge about God and his Word. These are the hymns that have been subjected to the scrutiny of the wise and discerning in the church and have passed the test. There are too many popular, modern Christian songs that have not been vetted like this and some of them may lead you astray.

Third, we are prone to choose familiar tunes and popular songs. But a hymnal with hundreds of selections from every age and from many cultures will keep before us (and in our mouths and hearts) hymns that we might not otherwise choose ourselves. There are hymns that call on us to praise God. There are others that cause us to cry out for justice and deliverance. That are hymns that are upbeat and cheerful, but others that remind us of the darker and difficult times of life. This variety stems from the foundation of the Christian hymnal--the Psalms. The Psalms embody the full range of human emotion and address a wide range of situations in which saints find themselves, whether it's being surrounded by enemies or rubbing shoulders with the saints in songs of praise.

Fourth, the music and hymnody of the church ought to mature us in prayer and praise. Too much of modern music is childish and directly tied to the entertainment industry's marketing to youth. The hymns in our hymnal will cause you to think and challenge you to engage with God in ways that transcend the Jesus-is-my-boyfriend kind of songs so popular in modern Christian circles.

Fifth, hymnals help us hey help us break away from the constant barrage of technological stimulation that we encounter throughout our week. Corporate worship is meant to be a unique experience as compared to watching TV, going to a movie, or a rock concert. But when our corporate worship experience is filled with many of the same elements that we could get at a cinema or a concert it is hard to understand, appreciate, and experience the uniqueness of worshipping God corporately.

Sixth, singing from hymnals joins us together in mysterious ways. We each hold the same hymnal. We each join voices around us. We listen to sounds that surround us. We breathe together, pause at the same time, become quiet, rejoice, smile, soar — all as one. Together we gloriously sing prayers that join our hearts together in praise and petition to the Triune God. It is an expression of our common faith, our unity in the Spirit.
