The Lord's Day
June 18, 2017

Welcome

If you are visiting our church today, we welcome you to our worship service and Christian community. Please find the registration book in the foyer of the church and help us serve you better by leaving your name and contact information. We promise to keep this information confidential and only use it for personal contact with you and your family. Join us downstairs for coffee after this morning's service.

All Sunday School classes are suspended for the summer months. You are invited to stay after the service for a bit and enjoy coffee and conversation down in the Fellowship Hall. There will be no evening service tonight. Enjoy Father's day with the family this afternoon and evening.

If you are unfamiliar with our form of worship, please feel free to speak with one of the Pastors or Elders. We have resources that will help you understand the biblical rationale for why we worship the way we do. Visit our website for articles, essays, and other helpful information on our worship and life at Providence: www.providencestlouis.com.

The Lord's Supper is observed every Sunday as the climax of covenant renewal worship. We invite to the Lord's Table all those who are baptized disciples of Jesus Christ, under the authority of Christ and his body, the Church. By eating the bread and wine with us as a visitor, you are acknowledging to the elders of this local church that you are in covenant with God as an active member of a congregation in which the Gospel is faithfully confessed, taught, and believed. If you have any doubt about your participation, please speak to one of the elders or the pastor before or after the service. Note: The middle circle of cups in each tray contains grape juice, the larger outer ring contains wine (the grape juice has a darker color than the wine).

The Tree of Life (Front Cover)

In the Bible, trees are given to man for food and medicine as well as beauty and shade. Trees are an emblem of God's glory in the world and so are fitting symbols of God's people. We can flourish "like a tree planted by streams of water, which yields its fruit in its season, and its leaf does not wither" (Psalm 1:3). The growth of the kingdom is likened to a rising, spreading tree (Ezek. 17; Matt. 13:31-32). Adam's fall severed us from access to the Tree of Life, but united to Christ we again have access to its life-giving fruit (Rev. 22:2).

This is Trinity Season and so the color of the Table cloth and pulpit scarf is green, symbolizing life, growth, and the maturation of Jesus kingdom.

Welcome & Announcements

Pastor Jeff Meyers

[Kneeling] Silent Preparation for Worship

Call to Worship: 2 Corinthians 4:6

†Hymn #56 "Oh Splendor of God's glory"

Trinity Hymnal

†Salutation & Responsive Scripture

Pastor: In the Name of the Father, and the Son, and the Holy Spirit!

Congregation: Amen!

The Lord be with you!

Ruth 2:4

And also with you!

Yahweh is God,

Psalms 118:27-8

and he has made his light to shine upon us.

Bind the festal sacrifice with cords,

up to the horns of the altar!

You are my God, and I will give thanks to you;

you are my God; I will extol you.

†Pastor: Let us pray to the Lord:

Almighty God, you have given your only Son to be for us a sacrifice for sin, and also an example of godly life: give us grace to receive thankfully the fruits of his redeeming work, and to follow daily in the wise steps of his mature life; through Jesus Christ your Son and our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen!

Purification

†Leader: If we say we have no sin,

We deceive ourselves and the truth is not in us.

If we confess our sins,

He is faithful and righteous to forgive us our sins.

Let us therefore humbly confess our sins to God our Father.

Come, let us worship and bow down, Psalm 95:6

And kneel before the Lord our Maker. [Congregation kneels]

O God, our heavenly Father, I confess to you that I have grievously sinned against you in thought, word, and deed; not only in outward transgressions, but also in secret thoughts and desires that I am unable fully to understand, but which are all known to you. I am in need of deliverance from your enemies and my infirmities. For this reason I flee for refuge to your infinite mercy, seeking and imploring your forgiveness and deliverance, through my Lord, Jesus Christ. Amen.

†Leader: Now lift up your heads, arise, and hear the good news . . . !

Ascension

†Pastor: Lift up your hearts!

We lift them up to the Lord!

†Let us give thanks to the Lord our God!

It is proper and right to do so.

†Truly it is good, right, and salutary that we should at all times and in all places give thanks to you, holy Father, almighty and everlasting God, who with your only-begotten Son and the Holy Spirit are one God, one Lord. Therefore, with angels and archangels and all the company of heaven, and with the church on earth, we praise and magnify your glorious Name, evermore praising you and singing . . .

IV. EXPOSITION OF PAUL'S FIRST EPISTLE TO TIMOTHY

†We Recite God's Standard for Living

1 Corinthians 13:1-7

If I speak in the tongues of men and of angels, but have not love,
I am a noisy gong or a clanging cymbal.

And If I have prophetic powers, and understand all mysteries and all knowledge, and if I have all faith, so as to remove mountains,
but have not love,
I am nothing.

If I give away all I have, and if I deliver up my body to be burned, but have not love, I gain nothing.

Love suffers long and shows kindness;
love does not envy or boast; it is not arrogant or rude.

It does not insist on its own way;
It is not irritable or resentful;

It does not rejoice at wrongdoing,
but rejoices with the truth.

Love bears all things, believes all things,
hopes all things, endures all things. Love never fails.

The Tribute Offering

We Offer Ourselves Through Tithes and Offerings

Offertory

†Offertory Prayer

Heavenly Father, as you have given yourself to us in the person of your dear Son, so we now offer up to you ourselves through our tithes and offerings. Accept these gifts in union with the sacrifice of Christ our Lord. Grant that they may be used for the advancement of your kingdom throughout the world.

Congregation: Amen!

† The Kyrie

Lord we thank you for your good-ness, love and kind-ness ev - er new.

Prayer of Thanksgiving & Memorial

†Hymn #362 “Let thy blood and mercy poured” Trinity Hymnal

Communion in the Body & Blood of Our Lord

†The Song of Simeon (Nunc Dimittis): Luke 2:30-32

Lord, now lettest thou thy servant depart in peace, according to thy Word; for mine eyes have seen thy salvation, which thou has prepared before the face of all people; A light to lighten the Gentiles, and the glory of thy people Israel. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost, as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

†Pastor: Give thanks to the Lord, for he is good.

Congregation: And his mercy endures forever!

†Pastoral Prayer: God of mercy, you are full of tenderness and compassion, merciful and gracious, slow to anger, abounding in steadfast love and faithfulness. Grant us grace to renounce all evil and to cling to Christ, that in every way we may be conformed to the image of your Son, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. .

Congregation: Amen!

Benediction

†Hymn #581 “To thee, O Lord, I fly”

Trinity Hymnal

Catechism of the Week

A Short Explanation of Luther's Small Catechism

Q. 153. What do the Scriptures teach of Christ's ascension into heaven?

A. The Scriptures teach that, according to his human nature, Christ visibly ascended into heaven and entered into the glory of his Father, as our Forerunner.

Church Secretary Opening — Providence is looking for a new church secretary. Madeline Mitchell has done a wonderful job for the last 4 years, but her responsibilities at Heritage school are increasing and she needs to step down. The position is very part time, requiring anywhere from 3-7 hours a week. If you have any interest in this, please email Pastor Meyers (jeffmeyers@me.com) for more information.

Nursery Service — Please consider serving a few Sundays every 6 months in our nursery for the morning service. You can sign up by going to the WIC table in the foyer. You can also sign up online. See the mid-week announcements for the link.

Women's Book Discussion & Event — Saturday, July 15, at 6:30 is the next book discussion and WIC event. It will be at the home of Debbie Keane with a few plot twists. Please book your calendar for this page turning event. We will be discussing Dorothy Sayers' Gaudy Night... and much more! If you are new to PRPC and would like to be added to the WIC email list, please contact Debbie Keane (keaneacre@aol.com).

Providence's Web Site — Remember, you can visit providencestlouis.com to download sermon audio. Check with Pastor Meyers if you don't remember the password to enter the members only portion of the web page.

The Lord's Service Explained

Give or Receive?

Some say that we don't come to church on Sunday to get anything from God but simply to give him praise. It's all about praising God, not getting something from him. But to reduce the purpose of the assembly on Sunday to "praise" is dangerously one-sided. Not only is the super-spiritual-sounding assertion that "we just gather together to give praise to God taking no interest in what we might get from him" unbiblical, it may also easily lead to arrogance, and often has.

In our tradition pastors and theologians are particularly vulnerable to this distortion of the purpose of worship. The slogan "we gather for worship to give not to get" has become something of a shibboleth. We love to beat other traditions over the head with it. It makes us feel superior. As if we don't go to church because we need anything! We Presbyterians go to church to give God glory and honor, not to get something from him. Really? We don't need anything from him?

For us, as creatures of God, there can be no such thing as "disinterested praise." We simply cannot love or praise God for who he is apart from what he has given us or what we continue to receive from him. We are not his equals. The notion that pure love and worship of God can only be given when it is unmixed with all thoughts of what we receive, has no biblical grounding. To be sure, it sounds very spiritual and pious. It even comes across as self-denial. "We just want to praise you for who you are, God. We love you and praise you, O God, not for what we get from you, but just for who you are." Sound's pretty pious, right?

In fact, however, there is no such worship in the Bible for the simple fact that we cannot approach God as disinterested, self-sufficient beings. We are created beings. Dependent creatures. We must continually receive both our life and redemption from God. Our "worship" of God, for this reason, necessarily involves our passive reception of his gifts as well as our active thanksgiving and petitions. We cannot pretend that we do not depend upon him. We will always be receivers and petitioners before God. Our receptive posture is as ineradicable as our nature as dependent creatures.

On Sunday we put ourselves in a position to be served by him. Recognizing this is true spirituality. Opening oneself up to the need for God's service is the first movement in our "worship," indeed, the presupposition of all corporate worship. It is faith's posture before our all-sufficient, beneficent Lord. Praise follows after this and alone can never be the exclusive purpose for our gathering together on the Lord's Day. We are indeed "gathered to get."
